Center for Nonprofit Excellence (CNPE)

CNPE pledges to do its best to understand the needs of non-profit groups and facilitate access to valuable resources. A variety of educational opportunities are offered. Also featured are trends in non-profit organizations, best practices and ways to access funding sources. For more information, call 315-2673 or visit www.cnpe.org.

The Community Foundation of Louisville

The Community Foundation of Louisville is a publicly supported charity with assets of $180 million and a growing collection of more than 1,000 separate charitable funds given by local citizens and organizations to improve the quality of life in the Louisville area, both now and for future generations. Since 1997, the Community Grants Program has awarded more than $2.6 million to more than 150 projects to prevent poverty by helping children and youth become prepared to achieve economic self-sufficiency. These grants support programs and projects that “help children help themselves” through educational, leadership, mentoring, recreational and cultural activities. Grants were awarded to projects in 16 targeted neighborhoods. For more information, visit www.cflouisville.org or contact Alex Spoelker, Director of Grants, at alexs@cflouisville.org or 585-4649.

Just Solutions

Just Solutions is a not-for-profit community mediation center, whose mission is to promote non-violent ways of dealing with conflict, managing change and building community. Trainings for neighborhood residents to learn conflict resolution, as well as training in mediation, facilitation and graphic facilitation is offered. Just Solutions services include consultation, coaching, strategic planning, facilitation and mediation. Through a contract with the Louisville Metro Department of Neighborhoods, they can work with neighbors who are having a dispute or with a neighborhood, homeowner or condo association that needs assistance. To learn more about training and services visit www.just-solutions.org or email office@just-solutions.org.

Leadership Louisville / Focus Louisville

In 1979 Leadership Louisville was founded “to foster interest in and promote educational, civic and social service activities.” The program was started to ensure that Louisville’s future leaders would be knowledgeable about community issues, well-networked and passionate about the success of the community. It has a mission of developing a diverse group of leaders to serve as catalysts for a stronger community. The Leadership Louisville program and its companion programs, Focus Louisville, Leadership Network and Bingham Fellows, are regarded as national models because of their continued popularity and scope. For more information, call 561-0458 or visit www.leadershiplouisville.org.

Legal Aid Society

The mission of the Legal Aid Society is to ensure equal justice for all by providing free legal assistance to low-income individuals in the Louisville Metro area and fourteen surrounding counties. Under a contract with the Louisville Metro Department of Neighborhoods, Legal Aid’s Community Development Program offers free legal assistance to neighborhood associations, with priority to those groups serving the low-income community. Assistance includes preparation of articles of incorporation, bylaws and applications for tax exemption and other organizational matters. Contact the Department for Neighborhoods at 574-3380 for a referral or contact Legal Aid’s intake department at 585-6980, ext. 216.

Louisville Metropolitan Police Department Neighborhood Watch Program

Neighborhood Watch is a police-community partnership to prevent crime. LMPD teaches techniques to reduce the risk of being a victim of crime. Learn the importance of recognizing suspicious activities and how to report them. Neighborhood Watches allow neighbors to get to know each other and their routines so suspicious activity can be recognized. It also forms a cohesive group of citizens that are better prepared to address issues of concern to the entire community. For information, contact Patsy Renee Stigall at 367-6716 or Patsy.Stigall@lmpd.louisvilleky.gov or www.nationaltownwatch.org/nno/about.html

Making Connections Louisville

Making Connections Louisville has a simple philosophy, “Children do well when families do well and families do well when they live in supportive neighborhoods.” Making Connections Louisville is a partnership of local leaders, residents, faith-based organizations, government, schools and others working to improve connections to economic opportunity, social networks and effective services to strengthen families and neighborhoods. Making Connections Louisville partners with local organizations to provide resident engagement, leadership development, research, data and information, co-investment, seed grants and technical assistance. They are working in Smoketown, Shelby Park, Phoenix Hill and California. For information, call 775-7176 or visit www.makingconnectionsworks.org/.

Metro United Way

Metro United Way believes in helping people improve their neighborhoods by building skills to identify community assets and needs so that residents can improve the quality of life in their communities. Metro United Way’s funding arm, Strengthening Neighborhoods, realizes this vision through its Vital Neighborhoods initiative. Since 1999, the Vital Neighborhoods team of community volunteers has invested more than $2 million to support leadership development training, neighborhood organizing, strategic planning and community building research and development. For more information, call 292-6127 or visit www.metrounitedway.org/CommunitySolutions/Neighborhoods.cfm.

National Neighborhood Day

National Neighborhood Day is celebrated in neighborhoods across the country on the second Sunday of September. It was established to recognize and reinforce the relationships that are the fabric of our communities. It is a day of simple gatherings to bring neighbors together and to help enhance neighborhood connections. This is a way to inspire, build and sustain neighborhood relationships that provide the foundation for civic action and the building of stronger, more caring and effective communities. For more information, visit http://www.neighborhoodday.org/index\_flash.asp.

Neighborhoods, USA (NUSA) Conference

Neighborhoods, USA is a national non-profit organization committed to building and strengthening neighborhood organizations. Created in 1975 to share information and experiences toward building stronger communities, NUSA now continues to encourage networking and information sharing to facilitate the development of partnerships between neighborhood organizations, government and the private sector. The organizational mission of NUSA is to build and strengthen neighborhood associations and to promote productive communications and collaborations between those associations and the public and private sectors. For more information, visit www.nusa.org/index.htm.

New Directions Neighborhood Roundtable

New Directions Neighborhood Roundtable invites representatives from neighborhoods throughout Metro Louisville to share activities, successes and challenges as they collaborate to tackle concerns that cross neighborhood lines.
